PRESS NOTE

Election Commission enhances remuneration for Presiding Officers, Polling Officers, Counting personnel, Micro Observers and other officials

Enhances honorarium for Dy. DEOs, CAPF personnel, Sector Officers

Enhances the rates for Food/Refreshment for polling/counting duty

Conduct of elections involves diverse activities carried out by an election machinery consisting of officials and staff requisitioned from various departments of the Central Government, State Governments, PSUs, Local Authorities etc. During the election period, the entire machinery, deployed on the ground, performs arduous and sensitive duties, which extend for long hours and even continue for many months, so as to ensure a conducive environment wherein electors are able to exercise their franchise and elect a government of their choice.

For ensuring that personnel on election duty are compensated suitably, the Commission has decided to revise the rates of remuneration/honorarium to be paid to personnel on election duty. The last such major revision of remuneration/honorarium was done between 2014 and 2016.

The details of old and new rates are as follows:
